

"COUNTRY SPECIALS"

Our "country specials" feature ingredients, flavors or traditional recipes from different regions around the world!

GREECE

Food, for the Greeks, had all sorts of religious and philosophical meaning. To begin with, they never ate meat unless it had been sacrificed to a god, or had been hunted in the wild. Even with vegetables, many Greeks believed that particular foods were cleaner or dirtier, or that certain gods liked certain foods better than others.

No such rules here during Greek month, just order what you like!
